

A Diary Entry (by)

Saturday, 30th January, 2021 Sunny

Phew! Glad that it's just a dream!

Dear Diary,

Last night, I had a dream when I was sleeping. It was a nightmare! I was so scared and frightened when I woke up this morning! I screamed as loud as I could. My mum came to my room and asked me what was happening. I was embarrassed and reluctant to tell her.

In my awful dream, I was standing in a terrifying forest. There were a lot of trees. Also, it was dark and there was some horrible and strange sound. I didn't know what I should do. Suddenly, I saw a woman who was standing next to me. I touched her arm and she looked at me furiously. I ran as fast as I could. Then, I almost fell into a huge hole. Luckily, I grabbed the rock and I didn't fall down. It was a hair-raising moment.

Afterwards, I stood up and ran for help. After that, I saw a man. I thought he was a human and I asked him for help. When he came closer to me, I discovered that he was a ghost. He caught me and wanted to kill me!

At that moment, I escaped from my dream and woke up. When I burst into tears, my mum came to my room just in time. She asked me, 'what happened?' I replied, 'I had a nightmare. Phew! Glad it's just a dream!' she said superstitiously, 'What? Nightmare would bring bad luck to you!' I said, 'No! You are too superstitious!'

If I tell my friends about my dream, they may think it is incredible that I will have this kind of dream. However, I know the reason. That is because I watched a horror movie last night. I have learnt a moral from my dream that I shouldn't watch horror movie again. It is not suitable for secondary one students. I should watch it after I grow up. It may affect my academic result. If my dad invited me to watch horror movie with him again, I will say no and neglect him. It is also not good for our health.

It is an inspiring day for me! I have to sleep now. good night, diary!

Love,

XXX