

‘I think we might be lost,’ whispered Lucy to her friends.

Last month, Lucy and Lucus went on a camping trip that turned into a nightmare. One day at access, Lucy said excitedly, ‘Let’s go for a trip to enjoy our Christmas holidays!’ Lucus responded, ‘It’s such an excellent idea! Let’s go!’ ‘Let’s invite more friends!’ Therefore, Lucus invited Felix and Edgar to go on the trip with them.

Lucy had straight brown hair and she wore a pair of glasses. She feared everything that looked harmful! Lucus was an insane person who always shouted and screamed. But he was an optimistic person who always considered things positively. Moreover, he was adventurous and courageous and liked to try everything new and innovative. Unlike Lucus, Felix was a deceitful person who always played tricks on Edgar. He had a round and ugly face. Because playing tricks on Edgar, Edgar often took revenge on Felix non-stop. They were playful and clumsy.

‘Let’s start to plan our trip!’ said Lucus. Edgar suggested, ‘Maybe we can go to Castle Peak.’ Felix laughed at Edgar, ‘You wanna go to that hospital? Stupid!’ Edgar was furious, he shouted, ‘It’s prepared for you!’ Felix was speechless. Lucy interrupted, ‘Let’s be peaceful and don’t argue with each other. We can go to Lion Rock for camping overnight.’ Lucus was so excited that he shouted, ‘What an insanely wonderful idea!!! Yeah!’

Therefore, they decided to go to the Lion Rock for a trip.

Last month, they went to the Lion Rock for camping. Lucus looked forward to the trip. He was thrilled. Lucy murmured, ‘We must wear our gears properly because of the danger of climbing a hill. She was well-prepared for the trip. They started their journey and started climbing the rock. Edgar and Felix were playing with each other. Suddenly, their ropes were broken so they fell on the ground carelessly. ‘Oh! It was painful!’ shouted Edgar. Lucy helped with his injury, but he could hardly walk.

‘It’s night now. Let’s camp here!’ Lucy said. She looked for Lucus, Edgar and Felix, but they disappeared. Lucy was frightened and scared. Lucy decided to go and find them courageously. Lucy finally found them out. However, something terrible happened—they got lost in the forest! Lucy asked them to calm down and she took her phone to call the police. But there was no signal. They were terrified. Luckily, there was a person in the forest that had a map. He took them to get out of the hill. Eventually, they got back home safely, and they learnt that they should not stay overnight in the forest or try something so dangerous.

One day at school, Lucy shared her terrible experience. Her classmate responded, ‘I would not do such a dangerous thing if I were you!’

‘What an unforgettable, memorable journey! I won’t forget this indelible experience in my lifetime!’ screamed by Lucy because of the tragedy in the highly expected journey. Although it was such a terrible experience, she was optimistic and considered it a precious experience and learnt from it.
