

Dear Diary,

Thanksgiving Day is coming soon. Do you have someone that you really want to thank? Hmmm... Let me tell you a secret — But please don't tell the others! Are you interested in knowing what it is?

That's right. I'm going to give my DEAREST Daddy a super big surprise. I've decided to cook a turkey and book a massage session for him. I'll invite him to go enjoy the massage with me. It must be very relaxing! I hope Daddy can release all his stress and recharge from what I have prepared for him. I can now imagine how satisfied he'd be. Haha!

The reason why I've decided to give Daddy a surprise on Thanksgiving Day is because I want to repay him for all his care. Since I was young, Daddy has been very nice and patient to me. No matter what I do, he's never blamed me. In my heart, Daddy is not only an extraordinary dad, but also my compass and best friend forever. Do you think that my Daddy is a hero in Marvel, Diary?

A compass leads your way, just like how my Daddy leads my way. From how to get along with others, to study a subject extensively, Daddy has taught me a lot of knowledge and skills. For example, last month, I had a bitter quarrel with my sister. After that, we didn't speak to each other for over one week. However, Daddy eventually dissolved the hatred between us! BTW, I still don't know what methods he's used until now! How ridiculous this sounds! Anyway, Dad is a magician!

Something that makes me very touched is — After working then come back home, Daddy still chats and plays with me despite his tiredness. He even puts aside his work and stays with me sometimes. I love my Daddy!

As everyone knows, I like to play LOL. For other children, if they tell their parents that they always play online games, I'm quite sure that their parents would immediately confiscate all their electronic devices and scold at them angrily. Agreed? Diary, however, how come my Daddy doesn't object to me playing online games? On the contrary, he plays LoL with me whenever he is free. Unlike other parents, Daddy believes that playing online games with kids can strengthen the relationship. Moreover, he thinks that I can release stress if I play games properly. Therefore, he is willing to play online games with me. Of course, he also does many activities I like with me. Are you envious, Diary?

That's why I want to give a surprise to Daddy. Besides, I'm going to study hard so that I won't make Daddy disappointed. Also, I will try my best to do something for Daddy, instead of having Daddy do everything for me.

It's a really good time for me to reflect how people treat me very well through Thanksgiving. Furthermore, it reminds me I should always have a heart which is full of gratitude and love. Lastly, HAPPY THANKSGIVING DAY, Diary!

Love,
Yangora
