

My lovely buddy — Hannah

Every success begins with a step is the motto which Hannah always spreads to encourage people around her. I'm really impressed by her positive attitude. She is such an optimistic and perseverant girl. She never loses hope in her dreams and she always keeps fighting for her targets.

Hannah is a very clean and tidy girl. She combs her hair into ponytail and irons her uniform into a tidy way every weekday. She is about 160cm tall and she has a lean physique. She has a fringe and medium-length straight black hair. By the way, I really want to say that her spectacles makes her so smart!

Every time I ask Hannah what her talents are, she gives me the same answer 'Nothing' because she's too humble. Although she won't admit she's talented, I know that's the truth. She's very good at playing the guitar and xylophone.

The thing I mustn't forget to talk about is the thing Hannah loves a lot. Hannah loves pizza very much. She also loves 'Anson Lo' who is the member of a local popular band called 'Mirror' more than pizza! She enjoys watching Anson Lo's shows and admires him. I hope that Hannah can learn the good things from her idol that makes her life more fruitful.

It's such a pleasure that I can study with Hannah in the same secondary school. I hope our friendship can prosper in a nice way and it can last forever.
