

19th November 2021

Dear Diary,

Thanksgiving, which occurs on the fourth Thursday in November, is coming soon. I have a lot of people that I want to thank but the one I want to thank most is my mum!

My mum is considerate and nice to me. She takes care of me carefully. She prepares breakfast and dinner for me every day. She always reminds me so that I won't forget the important things. For example, last week, when I was on my way to school. I noticed I had forgotten to bring my wallet and keys. When I walked halfway, I heard someone calling me, I turned my head and saw my mum running to me with my wallet and keys. She looked tired and sweated profusely, I was very moved.

She is a responsible mum, Diary. Last weekend, I felt ill and I called her. After she knew about it, she stopped her work and came home immediately. Then she took me to see the doctor, after taking the medicine, I felt better.

She is also hard-working and helpful. She earns money and does housework every day. Although she is busy, when I ask her to help me with my homework, she will try her best to help and give me some good suggestions.

My mum has already done a lot for me, so I have to make some changes. I will help her to do housework and study hard to repay her nurturing grace when I grow up.

A heartfelt thank you for all that you have done, mother!

Love,

Alex
