Dearest Diary,

Thanksgiving is coming! I would love to thank my father who is the most important person in my life. He always cares about me. Although my father is fully occupied with work, he always takes good care of me. Yesterday, I had the most uncomfortable day! I was feeling a bit unwell under the weather all day. Diary, my headache was killing me! My father immediately helped me call in sick and took me to the doctor. My father looked after me carefully. He took my temperature on an hourly basis and reminded me to take the medicine on time. After a day's rest, I felt much better! A heartfelt thank for all that my father has done.

Oh my goodness! I forgot that I had a Maths test and a presentation the next day. Oh, Diary! There wasn't enough time for me to finish my homework and study for the test. I was panic! My father patiently helped me with my study. However, I lost patience with my study and lost my temper. I got mad at my father for no reason. "You are so annoying! Stop talking to me!" I yelled. Surprisingly, my father didn't blame me for my bad temper. After I cooled down, I knew I was wrong. Diary, could you believe it? I was ashamed of myself — talking to my father like that!

Diary, I regretted saying hurtful things to my father. I have learnt that I should think twice before saying stupid things. I should stop saying hurtful things when I'm angry. I want to tell my dad," Dad, thanks for everything that you have done! You are always there for me. Thank you!"

Love,

Jolyon
