

A Speech

Someone we will never forget

Good morning, everyone. I am one of the students who was saved by our teacher, Miss Chan. I think all of the parents must be so upset to hear this news. Let us miss Miss Chan and respect what she did in the earthquake.

Before the earthquake, Miss Chan was teaching us Chinese and suddenly the things in classroom were shaking strongly. It made the students feel so scared. Miss Chan told us to go to the playground and comforted us. It was such a horrible sight. Everyone screamed and ran. Some of us were injured in the classroom and it was going to break down. Miss Chan came to rescue us and let us go to a safe place quickly, but she was not with us. Finally, she died in the classroom for saving us. I think it is heart-breaking, but it is real. I feel sorry about that.

Miss Chan was a responsible teacher. She was also the bravest person I have ever met in my life. Not many people can do this! She sacrificed her life to save us, which is really touching. I will never forget the sight. She saved us in this earthquake.

We will respect and miss Miss Chan forever. We should remember this earthquake and the day the earthquake occurred. It will be an unforgettable memory in our life. I hope that the kids can commemorate Miss Chan and thank her forever.

I know everyone must be sad and we all miss her so much. However, Miss Chan's love and care for us and her bravery and selfless sacrifice will stay in our mind forever.
