

A Trip to Beijing

Have you ever been to Japan? Have you ever been to Korea? Those are popular places but I would answer “no” to these questions. I haven’t been to these places but in this summer holiday, my family and I went to Beijing for a wonderful and amazing trip.

When we arrived at Beijing, it was hot! First we visited the Tiananmen Square. It’s huge and we take a lot of photos there. Standing in front of the Tiananmen Square was just like a dream. I have never been to a majestic place just like this!

The next day, we went to the Great Wall! I was very excited because I have already heard that the Great Wall is very long and spectacular. It is true! When we reached there, it was really long! My dad and I decided to go in the beacon. However, I couldn’t because there were a lot of stairs! I was really tired so I couldn’t go up. But my dad didn’t feel tired. He went up and went into the beacon. I was extremely disappointed with myself that I couldn’t do it! Finally, my dad took some photos for me. On the Great Wall, the air was fresh and clean and the view was beautiful! I didn’t want to leave! Although the Great Wall was amazing, we still visited other places like the Temple of Heaven. These places all made me feel amazing! On the last day, we bought some souvenirs and post cards for my friends and we also took a family photo in front of the Tiananmen Square!

After this trip, I think that I have learnt a lot of history about each place.
During the trip, I have seen a lot of beautiful views. That is the best places
I have been. I also have great memories of this trip.
