Dear Jack,

How are you? It's great to hear from you. I'm excited to hear that you and your family are coming to Hong Kong in August. Last time you asked me for some idea about what you can eat in Hong Kong. Now I am going to give you some suggestions.

On Day 1, you and your family can have sweet and sour wheat gluten for breakfast. It is a vegetarian food so I think your elder sister, Sue would like this dish. In the afternoon, you can go to Mongkok to have some local street snacks, like curry fish balls and egg waffles. There are many delicious street snacks in Mongkok so I think you and Mike would like this place. At night, you can go to have some seafood, such as deep-fried squids with chili and spicy salt. I think your Dad would like it. That is the itinerary for Day 1.

On Day 2, you can go to Cha Chaan Tang to have breakfast. The French toast of Cha Chaan Tang is very tasty. I think your Mum would like it. In the afternoon, you can try some local food, like egg tarts and pineapple buns. I'm sure that you and Mike would love them. At night, your family can go to Chong Kee Dessert to have some desserts, such as black sesame sweet soup and red bean pudding. I think your younger sister Lizzie would like it because you told me that she loves desserts. That is the end of Day 2.

I'm very excited to see you in August. I hope you would like the itinerary that I have planned for your family. Do you want to make any changes for the suggested itinerary? Please tell me if you want to. Give my regards to your parents. I must stop now because it's already 12:00am. I have to sleep now. Bye for now and please write soon.

Regards,
Harry
