An unforgettable Day

I will never forget today! Today was my big day. It was my 12th birthday. I was humming a birthday song while I was walking to school.

This morning, I went to school with a cheerful heart because I thought everyone would say 'Happy birthday!' to me. When I arrived at the classroom, it was not as what I had expected. I was disappointed. I asked my best friend, 'Daniel, do you remember whose birthday is it today?' 'No! Whose birthday?' His answer shocked me. I was heartbroken. I also asked my other friends, but no one remembered my birthday! I was so unhappy that I wiped my tears secretly in the toilet.

After lunchtime, I went back to the classroom. I was so disappointed. Suddenly I saw a beautiful birthday cake on the desk and my friends stood around the desk, and said 'Happy birthday, Rex! We haven't forgotten your birthday. We just want to give you a big surprise!' I was so touched. Originally, they just wanted to hold a surprise party for me.

This birthday was so unforgettable. I thought they must have forgotten my birthday, but they remembered it. I won't forget this day and my dear friends. Thanks for celebrating my birthday.
