

Terrible Stationery!

I had a bad dream last night. It was a very terrible experience in the dream.

Last night after I was asleep, I saw some tables and chairs and I looked around. 'Here's my classroom' I yelled. Suddenly, someone knocked and opened the door. A lot of stationery and exercise books were walking into the classroom. Each of them was as big as a wall and they talked together. The ruler shouted, 'The boy is lazy. He always forgets to do his homework.' And the exercise book added, 'He always plays computer games all day.' I was frightened that the stationery could talk?

The stationery shouted out all my weaknesses and were very angry with me. Then they noticed me. They started to chase after me when I was escaping. I was extremely scared when I heard a loud voice from them, 'You haven't finished your homework.'

I ran back home immediately. I couldn't find help because the streets were empty. I could only see the terrible stationery chasing after me.

After I went home, I sat on my desk and started to do my homework. The pencil jumped into my hand and the exercise book opened its body. Its face appeared on the paper and shouted, 'Do your homework quickly.' It told the eraser and pen to take a string to tie me on the chair. I was like a slave of homework. When I was writing, the exercise book kept shouting at me, so I couldn't write well. At the same time, the eraser kept erasing my work. So, I wrote again and again for many times. Oh, I could never finish my work! 'I was fed up with doing my homework.' I murmured. The exercise book heard that and used its paper to smack me face.

In the end, I finished all my work and the stationery released me. I woke up, being exhausted! When I walked out from my bedroom, I saw my mum and I hugged my mum at once, bursting out with tears. After this dream, I have learnt that I need to do my homework quickly and I should play after doing homework. I don't want to be threatened by the stationery and exercise books anymore!
